2013, as the preliminary hearing/arraignment date. 1 2 2. Michael Paez, Esq., counsel for the defendant, requested an opportunity to prepare a 3 formal submission to the Government proposing resolution of this matter prior to the filing of formal charges. Accordingly, the parties jointly requested, and the Court granted, a continuance of the 4 5 preliminary hearing until September 18, 2013. 3. Mr. Paez has submitted a formal proposal to the Government, and the Government is now 6 7 in the process of considering it. However, the Government requires additional time to consider this 8 proposal because the proposed disposition will require the agreement of Pretrial Services in the Northern 9 District of California (and possibly, Pretrial Services in the Southern and/or Eastern Districts of New York, where the defendant works and lives, respectively). Accordingly, the parties respectfully request 10 that the January 10, 2014 preliminary hearing be continued until February 24, 2014. Should this request 11 be granted, the parties submit that time should be properly excluded in the interests of justice and to 12 13 ensure the effective assistance of counsel under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), and Fed. Case 313 mj 703 MXG Document 16 Filed 011/039/114 Prages 3:583

FOR THE FOREGOING REASONS, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT the January 10, 2014 preliminary hearing/arraignment for the above-captioned matter is continued until February 24, 2014, and time under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), and Fed. R. Crim. P. 5.1 is excluded until February 24, 2014. The Court finds that good cause is shown for extending the time limits set forth in Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 5.1(c), and, further, concludes that the extension is proper under Rule 5.1(d) and Title 18, United States Code, Sections 3060 and 3161. The Court finds that the ends of justice served by granting the requested extension outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial and in the prompt disposition of criminal cases. The Court also concludes that an exclusion of time through and including February 24, 2014, should be made under Title 18, United States Code, Sections 3161(h)(7)(A) and 3161(h)(7)(B)(iv). The Court also finds that the ends of justice served by an exclusion of time through and including February 24, 2014, outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. Id. § 3161(h)(7)(A).
